'A Home-In-One' Golf Outing Recap

Our 2023 'A-Home-in-One' Golf Outing took place on Monday, July 24th at Gleneagles Golf Club in Twinsburg. This event included raffles, games, food & drinks, and 18 holes of golf!

To get the morning started, golfers checked in while enjoying coffee and donuts. There were raffles and new games for our golfers to enjoy including Mulligans, Strings, and Zero on a Par 3. Habitat for Humanity of Summit County President & CEO, Rochelle Sibbio, and Honorary Chair, Scott Wynn from WQMX welcomed our guests. The golfers enjoyed 18 holes of golf and were served lunch on the course. Thank you to Fuchs Lubricants Co. and The Coca-Cola Company for being our lunch and drink sponsors.

After a long day of golf, our golfers were served appetizers while awaiting the announcement of our golf outing winners and raffle prizes. Congratulations to our four-time winners: David Carano, John Cook, Ryan Oldfield, and Nick Allman! Also, a great job to everyone who participated!

Thank you to all our golfers, donors, sponsors, and those who contributed to this event. A special thank you to our presenting sponsor, J.W. Didado Electric for their support. Thank you to our Co-Chairs, Joe and Cheryl Majewski, the Golf Outing Committee, Board of Trustees, and all those who made this event possible. Your support goes a long way in helping us achieve our mission of creating a world where everyone has a decent place to live. Save the date Monday, July 29th, 2024 for our 15th 'A-Home-In-One' Golf Outing!

Meet Loyal Volunteer Bob!

By: Briana Cantrell,
Family Services Manager/QLO & Volunteer Coordinator

Meet Bob! Bob is one of our loyal volunteers at Habitat for Humanity of Summit County. He has been volunteering at Habitat since 2013 and has completed over 4,000 volunteer hours in our ReStore. Prior to volunteering with us, Bob spent 35 years working at Goodyear. Shortly after retiring, he visited the ReStore to shop and inquired about possible volunteer opportunities.

He stated, "I can't sit at home and do nothing all day! That wouldn't be good for my health." Bob loves being around people and enjoys working with all of the staff and volunteers in the ReStore. He also enjoys visiting with the office staff every morning! When asked what he would say to someone who was interested in volunteering with Habitat, Bob stated, "Come on in! The people are nice and the work keeps you in shape." Thank you Bob for all of your hard work and dedication to Habitat over the last 10 years!

Introducing Alex & Emily!

Alex and Emily are our summer 2023 Marketing Interns. Their role within the organization is to work on social media content, create new and fun marketing strategies, assist with event planning for our three fundraising events, and help out with 50/50 raffle at the Akron Rubberducks games! They are both students at Kent State University graduating in Fall 2023. They work alongside our Marketing and Events Manager, Kayla Collins, and Marketing and Events Coordinator, Samantha Starkey. Make sure to say hi if you see them around Habitat for Humanity of Summit County!
